

The Daily Waste

March 9, 2004

A recent audit by the HUD Inspector General found that a public housing authority was inappropriately using a Public Housing Drug Elimination Grant for:

- ✚ over $9,000 for amusement and entertainment activities (such as tickets to the Harlem Globetrotters, circus, Just Ducky Tours, movies and the zoo)
- ✚ $19,914 for a wood chipper
- ✚ over $49,000 “for the services of an interior designer and an artist for artwork”
- ✚ payments to consultants
- ✚ over $29,000 for cooks and food
- ✚ over $8,000 for community celebrations

And the Democrats want to raise your taxes to pay for more of this?

Source: (HUD IG Audit Report, 2004-PH-1002, Jan. 16, 2004)

###

www.house.gov/mariodiaz-balart/watchers/wastewatch.htm